"Three relationships. Three disasters. One last chance."
Rated PG, 112 Minutes
Starring Ryan Reynolds, Isla Fischer & Abigail Breslin

Will Hayes, a 30-something Manhattan dad is in the midst of a divorce when his 10 year old daughter, Maya, starts to question him about his life before marriage. Maya wants to know absolutely everything about how her parents met and fell in love. Will hopelessly attempts a "PG" version of his story for his daughter and changes the names so Maya has to guess who he finally married. Is her mother Will's college sweetheart, the dependable girl next-door Emily? Is she his longtime best friend and confidante, the apolitical April? Or is she the free-spirited but ambitious journalist? As Maya puts together the pieces of her dad's romantic puzzle, she begins to understand that love is not so simple or easy. And as Will tells her his tale, Maya helps him to understand that it's definitely never too late to go back...and maybe even possible to find a happy ending.

TALK TO ME

"Inspired by a true story."
Drama/Biography, Rated M, 118 Minutes
Starring Don Cheadle, Taraji P Hansen, Martin Sheen & Chiwetel Ejiofor

Ex-con Ralph 'Petey' Greene, with the support of his irrepressible and tempestuous girlfriend Vernell, talks and pushes himself into a radio talk show hosting spot on WOL-AM in 1960s Washington DC. He forges a friendship and partnership with the station's programmer Dewey Hughes. From the first wild morning on the air, Petey relies on the more straight-laced Dewey to shield him from management. Combining biting humor with brutally honest social commentary, Petey openly courts controversy for station owner E.G. Sonderling. He also plays a role in calming Washington in the wake of Martin Luther King's assassination. But when Dewey wants to propel him to major stardom, Petey becomes uncomfortable and they split.
